FABRIC INDEX

The fabrics we use at Psylo have been chosen with extreme consciousness.
To help you understand better the consistency and texture of each fabric, please refer to the following descriptions…

Rayon. A semi synthetic cellulose fiber mainly made from wood pulp. Also known by the name viscose and art silk.

Viscose. Same as rayon, our viscose is a thin woven fabric

Modal. A bio-based fiber made with cellulose from beech trees (modal is essentially a variety of rayon.)

Spandex. A synthetic fiber known for its exceptional elasticity. It is stronger and more durable than rubber. Also known as elastine or lycra.

Lycra. Same as spandex

Silk chiffon. A lightweight, sheer silky fabric, looks like a fine net or mesh, made out of pure silk.

Slub. Lumps or uneven thickness of yarn, which gives an irregular texture to the fabric.

Thin cotton modal stretch. 45% cotton 45% modal 10% spandex. The combination of these 3 fabrics produces a thin, soft fabric with durable elasticity and a velvety feel.

Rayon lycra. 90% cotton 10% lycra. A stretched knitted fabric, thick and durable.

Cotton rayon 50s. 50% cotton 50% rayon jersey. The combinations of this 2 fabrics in 50s, produces a thin fabric, strong with a silky feeling to it and a slight stretch.

Cotton Jersey 50s. 100% thin knitted cotton.

Cotton waffle. Woven cotton with a honeycomb texture, the waffle weave offers some thickness and stretch to the fabric, with allowance for air circulation.

Hand knitted fabric 1 x ply. Hand knitted with traditional manual machine, 1 yarn in each knit. Acrylic 73% nylon 27%.

CVC cotton slub double knit. A double layer of internal cotton and external polyester with a slub texture, knitted together. C.65% P.35%

Rib stretch slub. Rib fabric made of rayon 45% cotton 45% spandex 10% with a slub texture to it.

Rayon shiny stretch. 90% rayon (processed until shiny) 10% spandex

Thin Cotton Pinstripe. 100% cotton dobby with a stamped pinstripe texture.

Thin cotton stretch. 95% thin cotton foil, 5% spandex

Thick velvet stretch. Cotton CVC with a velvety texture C.80% P.20%

Cotton pointel. Knitted jersey fabric with floral pattern knitted onto the surface.

Stretch net. Thin, soft, synthetic net.

Vegan leather. Artificial, with a leather-like finish with some shine to it. We use it for ethical and efficiency reasons, or where the actual leather is cost-prohibitive or unsuitable for regular washing.
